Senior Class History

On the bright and sunny morning of September 5, 1944, seven members of the 1956 graduating class found their way to the first grade room where Mrs. Draper eagerly met her new pupils. They were: Donna Givan, Sandra Taylor, Bonnie Pettit, Edith Thompson, Richard Foster, Robert Pettit, and Keith Roice.

One of these members, Richard Foster, moved to Homerville before the beginning of the second grade when Mrs. Hadley was our teacher. Richard returned to Sullivan and Ben Kelly from LaGrange joined our ranks in the third grade when we were under the guidance of Mrs. Zacharias.

In the fourth grade our class was split with half of us in Miss Miller's room and the other half in Miss Long's room. Our number was increased by two more, Wesley Reese and Wayne Hoffman, both from Cleveland.

In the fifth grade our class was still split. We were under the direction of Miss Miller and Mrs. Zacharias. In this grade, Janice Pfeiffer came to join our class from Tampa, Florida. We were all together as we entered our last year of grade school with Mrs. Baker trying hard to teach us something.

We reached the next plateau when we started our first year of junior high where we changed classes every period and had a different teacher for every subject. Mr. Kilchenman was our advisor that year. We were under the direction of Mr. Prokop in the eighth grade. Kenneth Nichols joined our class from Northwestern.

We thought we were pretty grown-up as we entered our first year of high school. Our class was increased by six this year. Five of these came from Huntington: Ardith Leininger, Barbara Bakos, Ronald Sprinkle, Alan Wacker, and Bradley Smith. The other was Louis Sandoval from Oberlin. Miss Swisher was our advisor during the ninth grade.

In our sophomore year, Mr. MacKellar was our advisor. He was our advisor again in our junior year. For our first adventure into the mysteries of dramatics, we presented "Seventeen Is Terrific". In May of our junior year we transformed the gym into a beautiful starlight scene for the annual Jr.-Sr. Prom.

We finally attained our goal as we walked into the halls of Sullivan High School for our last year of formal education. We were seniors!!! We named our annual "Stairway to Success"; we took our senior trip to Washington D.C. and New York City; and were guests at the Jr.-Sr. Prom; and presented as our senior play "Finders Creepers", under the direction of Mr. Larabee. On the evening of May 23, 1956, eighteen seniors received their diplomas at the 64th Annual Sullivan High School Commencement in the high school auditorium. Dr. Roger Shaw of Kent State University gave the Commencement address.

Class Poem

Here come the seniors in review,
What they've done and what they'll do.
From the towns and from the sticks,
We're the class of '56.

Barbara is so short and witty,
For her to leave the school's a pity.
Beautician is her goal in life,
But maybe she'll just be a wife.

Dick Foster is the cutest guy,
But he is very often sly.
Especially when he's in the hall (?)
Or running with a basketball!

Donna Givan was the queen,
Who reigned for our homecoming scene.
She sings and plays in finest style,
And always wears a pleasant smile.

And then there's Wayne, who's not so quiet,
With him around there's sure a riot.
But in a corner in the hall,
You scarce can hear his words at all.

Ben Kelly is a star athlete,
Quite rough on the foe and light on his feet.
He is quite nice and so polite,
He'd never, never pick a fight.

Ardith has the prettiest hair--
For grooming she has quite a flair.
We sure will miss her "Boys now please!"
For when she's gone, who will they tease?

Kenny has the nicest smile,
In football he could run a mile.
But with the dames he has his troubles,
For all his dreams go up in bubbles.

Bonnie Pettit's a jolly gal,
And with the boys she's quite a pal.
Her secret love is driving cars,
Oh, Bonnie, please don't drive to Mars!

Her brother Bobby's so polite,
He really is a welcome sight.
The nicest farmer he will be,
And there he'll raise his family.

Janice Pfeiffer is our "brain"
For her the honor roll's no strain.
She's also easy on the eyes,
For some nice guy she'll be a prize.

Of all the guys who like cars best,
Wesley Reese outshines the rest.
And, oh, the jokes he loves to tell,
But never seems to hear the bell!

In our class the tallest one,
Towers to a six foot one.
Of the girls he'd like his choice,
We're speaking now of our Keith Roice.

Louie Sandoval's a lot of fun,
Just mention eats and watch him run.
In chewing gum he takes the prize,
For fourteen sticks are just his size!

There's a flaming red-head in our crowd,
And when he's with the boys he's loud!
Of all the guys who like their fun,
Bradley Smith sure is the one!

And Ronnie Sprinkle has his dreams,
To be a millionaire it seems.
Ranch-type homes, yachts, and cars--
My boy, you're reaching for the stars.

Sandy Taylor is the quietest lass,
Of all the girls who're in our class.
She likes to drive and likes one guy,
Perhaps she'll get him by and by.

Edith Thompson is our blonde,
Of giggling she is very fond.
Now what on earth will Edy do,
When all her high school days are through?

Alan Wacker loves to talk,
Even when he's throwing chalk.
He's the wittiest guy we know,
The school will really miss him so!

Last Will and Testament

We, the senior class of Sullivan High School, on this 13th day of February in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty-six, make our last will and testament, and do hereby make all other wills and testaments void.

To the teachers, we leave patience which they will need if another class ever comes along like ours.

To the junior class, we leave the senior cloak room (you always used it anyhow).

To the sophomore class, we leave the parking places in front of the school when you get cars of your own.

To the freshman class, we leave an abundance of catsup and mustard to smear around the home economics room after the basketball games.

To all the undergrades, we leave our marked-up books, and our good behavior.

I, Barbara Bakos, leave my ability to chewing gum to Janet Foster.

I, Richard Foster, leave my curly hair to Tommy Jordan.

I, Donna Givan, leave my ability to skip study halls to anybody who gets away with it.

I, Wayne Hoffman, leave my ability to get good grades without studying to anyone who can do so.

I, Ben Kelly, leave my ability to sleep late in the morning and still make it to school to Dan Nesbett.

I, Ardith Leininger, leave my red hair to Mark Smith.

I, Kenny Nichols, leave my ability to shoot long shots to Tom McConnell.

I, Bonnie Pettit, leave my ability to get along with certain people to Lyn Davidson.

I, Bob Pettit, leave my ability not to smoke and drink to all the underclassmen.

I, Janice Pfeiffer, leave my place as drum majorette of the band to whoever takes my place. Good luck!!

I, Wesley Reese, leave my ability to go out every night and stay out late to Janet Heiffner.

I, Keith Roice, leave my ability to get more than the limited number of kisses from any one girl in one night to Alan Ballou.

I, Louie Sandoval, leave my ability to make all the noise in study hall to Bob Wilson.

I, Bradley Smith, leave my ability to stand in the hall without being caught to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Ronnie Sprinkle, leave my ability to get along with the teachers to Curt Howe, and hope he will improve.

I, Sandy Taylor, leave my ability to be voted the quietest to Pat Enderby.

I, Edith Thompson, hereby leave my blonde hair and brilliancy to Robert Channel.

I, Alan Wacker, leave my awful jokes to anyone that has nerve enough to tell them.

Senior Class Prophecy

As we hold our annual reunion in the year 1966, we find our class all happily settled down.

Barbara Bakos is happily married and has her own beauty salon.

Richard Foster and Wayne Hoffman are building sport cars and midget auto racers, and are racing them at the Lorain County Speedway.

Ben Kelly is now coaching at Ohio State; his wife, Donna Givan, is teaching girls' physical education.

Ardith Leininger and Bradley Smith are happily married; their six children keep them pretty busy.

Kenneth Nichols has finally married and is planning on raising cheerleaders.

Bonnie Pettit, has just been employed as the new school clerk and secretary.

Sandra Taylor and Robert Pettit are partners in a restaurant; their business is very successful.

Janice Pfeiffer is teaching school at Sullivan, and she is still trying to figure out a new theory on how to make her pupils behave.

Wesley Reese is working to get a brand new car, but finds it hard with a family to raise.

Keith Roice is still busy saving his money and working out new budgets.

Edith Thompson and Louis Sandoval are happily engaged in the shoe business, and have their own store in Sullivan.

Alan Wacker is owner of a 5,000 acre beef cattle ranch with Ronald Sprinkle as business manager.

Mr. Larabee is taking on some more seniors, and trying to teach them something.
